

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Cleveland Service Agency Announces Improved Cleveland Process Service

Cleveland, Ohio – March 26, 2010 – It's bound to happen to you sooner or later: someone--either your client or the overburdened court system loses an original affidavit. You know the hassle involved with getting a new original to be made--and the amount of time and money wasted in the process.

You don't have to worry anymore. Thanks to two new amenities offered by the Cleveland Service Agency, your affidavits are safe and secure. As part of their service, most of their assignments will include duplicate original affidavits and returned to you with USPS Delivery Confirmation at no cost to you. These new benefits will allow you to provide a more streamlined service to your client and the courts.

Phil Pavarini Jr., owner of Cleveland Service Agency, says he has already had positive feedback from his clients regarding the duplicate original affidavits and delivery confirmation. "With all the paperwork generated by the legal system, our company felt that providing duplicate original affidavits was a painless way we could provide a little more convenience for our clients. They really seem to appreciate our extra efforts."

Also, Pavarini said, Cleveland Service Agency will begin returning all original affidavits via USPS with Delivery Confirmation. "You never have to wonder where your returns are," Pavarini said. "We are as meticulous with your records as we are with our own."

Cleveland Service Agency uses Process Servers Toolbox (PST), with access to NetDirector, and Serve-X, allowing automatic data integration with high-volume foreclosure and collection attorney software. This software allows for increased efficiency and reduced costs by reducing reporting time and data entry.
